

I support media diversity

I am opposed to regulations that would allow further media consolidation. The basis of democracy is a plurality of voices, not consolidated corporate control of the media.

Please do not change the existing regulations to further benefit large corporations.

Thank you.

John Duffy